

WEST END MUSIC

Compass Music Ipswich LTD trade as West End Music from their Norwich road shop in Ipswich. The shop is on 3 floors and was completely modified after the current owner, Brian Booker, bought it in 2002. He previously traded from a small but very full shop in Felixstowe road, known as East End Music (now closed unfortunately).

The shop mainly trades in rock gear, new, used & vintage, but also sells ethnic instruments including percussion, as well as other stringed instruments and some woodwind and brass. They have an extensive range of instruments and accessories, most of which can be seen on their website www.westendmusic.co.uk.

Brian and James, along with part timers, Linda & Ivan, always endeavour to provide helpful advice & service whether to existing or budding musicians. They also provide a good repair & "set up" service, Tuition is also available at the shop.
